

The Institute for the Study of Nature
“Does Nature Act for an End?: Teleology Reconsidered”

June 11th to June 16th, 2007
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Please type your information directly into this file, save it using your name in the file name, and e-mail it and supporting materials to hteichert@isnature.org.

Name:
E-mail Address:
Phone Number:
Mailing Address (school year):

Alternate Mailing Address (summer):

Alternate Mailing Address (permanent):

Education:

What type of degree are you pursuing?:
What is your area of concentration or major?:
What year are you at school?:
What school do you attend?:
What are your future educational plans?:
What are your future career plans?:

Name and e-mail address of your faculty/mentor reference:

How does he or she know you?:

In what capacity does he or she serve at your (or another) university?:

In addition to this document, kindly send us (in PDF, HTML, or Word .doc format):

- a curriculum vitae and/or resume
- a 250-500 word essay explaining why you wish to attend the seminar
- A letter of recommendation from a professor or mentor

Kindly request that the person recommending you send their letter of recommendation in PDF, HTML, or Word . format directly to Henry Teichert.

All application materials must be received by Henry Teichert no later than May 11th, 2007. You can contact him by email at hteichert@isnature.org or by telephone at: 202-747-4519.